FACTS

WHAT ELSE DOES BRIGHTON BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

WHY?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some, but not all, sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

WHAT?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us.- This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and transaction history
- Credit history and payment history

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

HOW?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Brighton Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit sharing.

MORE FACTS

WHAT ELSE DOES BRIGHTON BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

WHAT WE DO ...

How does Brighton Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We maintain policies that require restrictions on access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you.

How does Brighton Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or deposit money
- apply for a loan or show your driver's license
- use your debit or credit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, and other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
